

SUNDAY PASSE

IN QUIETNESS

St. Petersburg Revolutionists Took Timely Heed.

NO ATTEMPT AT DISORDER

SITUATION CONTINUES GRAVE IN THE PROVINCES.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 5.—Sunday happily passed in St. Petersburg without disorders or bloodshed. The social democrats and revolutionists had planned a mammoth demonstration in connection with the funerals of those killed in last week's riots, and it was intended to form gigantic processions representing the various industrial organizations in the suburbs, and, flying red flags, bear the bodies of the "martyrs" in state through the center of the city. These processions were to take place at the Kizan cathedral, where the passions of the crowd might be fired by revolutionary orators.

Late last night, however, when it became known that General Trepoft would not permit a demonstration threatening disorder, and that the mayor had issued a proclamation saying that the streets were no place for the airing of political grievances, the socialist leaders called off their plan, declaring that they feared "this demonstration of the people was marked for slaughter, for which they were prepared at present. The people will give battle when ready, not when Trepoft wants it."

Private Funerals.

Accordingly the funerals were held in private, and workmen attended national services in the various mills. Although the demonstration was formally abandoned, tens of thousands of spectators flocked to the Nevsky Prospect. The broad thoroughfare in front of the Kizan cathedral was filled by a great crowd of people, but there was no attempt at disorders and no occasion for the use of the squadrons of Russian Cossack troops, who were held in reserve in the side streets.

The revolutionary leaders here anticipate a period of comparative quiet in the city, but they are not without a "maneuver" which forced authority to make concessions.

"We haven't any intention of ending this fight," said one of the leaders, "but will organize and arm the people for the final struggle. We expect nothing from bureaucracy, and only by a popular uprising can we achieve our aim, which is constituent assembly."

Provinces Still Turbulent.

While the news received from the provinces indicates that some like normal conditions are being restored in many regions, (the situation continues grave in the Caucasus, the Caucasus, Odessa and other places in the south, where the outrages generally have taken an anti-Jewish nature.)

Thomas E. Heenan, American consul at Odessa, has sent a telegram to the American embassy saying that since Tuesday the bloody attempts upon the Jews have continued and that he estimates the number killed in thousands. Artillery, he says, has been employed to suppress the rioting, and the Jews have been fired from windows upon the troops in the streets. Fortunately, he adds, thus far American interests are unaffected.

Heavy Death Roll.

Fatal encounters between the soldiers and the populace and anti-Jewish excesses are reported from many places in the provinces. Yesterday and today St. Kremenets, a delayed report was killed and eighty injured. At Kutais a military train was wrecked and nine soldiers killed. After the collision the revolutionaries accused a rifle fire on the train and the troops replied in kind. There were several killed or injured on both sides. At Tiflis several persons were killed or injured, and at Minsk serious rioting arose through the troops' preventing a meeting of citizens. At troops fired volleys into the crowds and there was intermittent firing for a long time. A hundred were killed and 500 wounded. Indescribable horrors are being witnessed every day. The massacre and pillage of the Jews continue at Kishinev.

Anti-Semitic rioting has been reported to be going on in Kherosoff, Ekaterinavsk, Vasilkoff, Valguia, Lvano, Vozosensk, Moghloff, Kelet and Uman.

At Akkerman many were killed, and at Rostov-on-Don about 100 were killed or wounded. The Cossacks assisted in the pillaging. A delayed report from Baku, dated Nov. 2, states that an Armenian having fired upon and thrown bombs at a Jewish demonstration, serious encounters and incendiary followed, several persons being killed.

Protection Demanded.

From Rika, Consul Bernholdt telegraphed Charge d'Affaires Eddy today that the situation was extremely serious; that considerable American interests were involved; and that he demanded military protection. Mr. Eddy immediately saw Count Warmsdorf, the foreign minister, who promised to afford protection.

Mr. Bernholdt later telegraphed that a military guard had been placed at the consulate.

A similar appeal arrived today from George R. Martin, the American consul agent at Rostov-on-Don, where also there are anti-Jewish excesses. Mr. Eddy dispatched a note to the British, German and Austrian embassies, and they practically united in joint representations to the count. Lord Lansdowne and General Trepoft promised that all foreign interests would be safeguarded.

Battle With Jews.

Other dispatches received from Odessa say that the Cossacks and infantry fought a regular battle with Jews and revolutionaries, who were concealed in houses, and the government places the dead at 300 and the wounded at over 2,000.

Press accounts from Odessa give details of horrible atrocities. The bodies of living persons and others were rolled in splintered barrels, and the parts must be accepted with a large amount of caution.

No authentic figures are available from Rostov-on-Don, but the dead are placed at hundreds, and it seems definitely established that the Cossacks participated in the pillage there.

Not Clearly Understood.

The annex proclamation, with its confused phraseology, which even lawyers in the assembly are unable to construe clearly, is not received here with full satisfaction on account of its limitations. The general cry from all quarters is that the law is a dead letter.

SHERIFF IS ALSO

LEADER OF GANG

Evident Attempt to Intimidate Philadelphia City Party.

PROCLAMATION IS ISSUED

TROUBLE LIKELY TO OCCUR AT THE POLLS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The sheriff of the county of Philadelphia has issued a proclamation giving notice to all persons that they must abstain from interfering with the election officers in the performance of their duties next Tuesday. The issuing of a proclamation of this character is rather unusual. It quotes that portion of the election laws relating to the duties of election officers, and warns all policemen, deputy sheriffs and constables not to enter polling places except to assist the election officers, and upon to keep order and enforce the law. It calls upon and requires all citizens to respect and obey the election officers and deputy sheriffs appointed by the sheriff "whenever they may be requested to do so, to the end that the law may be respected and obeyed and the election officers and electors protected in the performance of their duties."

Belongs to "De Gang."

James L. Miles, the sheriff, is the leader of the regular Republicans in the Thirtieth ward, and is chairman of the Republican city committee.

In the campaign just closed the Republican organization and the City party adherents have made counter-charges of contemplated fraud and intimidation of voters and election officers. Colonel Sheldon Potter, the director of public safety, who is a leader on the reform side, has instructed the police that they must see that the election laws are enforced; that they must prevent fraudulent ballots from being cast and that they will be held responsible for every illegal vote found. On the other hand, the Republican organization is charging that the police are in collusion with the city voters; that they will arrest Republican election officers on false charges and in other ways exceed their authority. In this connection the organization has planned to have lawyers in every one of the forty-two wards to see that the election officers and Republican magistrates will be on hand to take bail in case Republican voters or workers are arrested.

Bail Bonds Arranged for.

The City party has also arranged to furnish bail bonds for the immediate release of any workers who may be illegally arrested on election day at the instance of their opponents. A corps of lawyers will also be on hand at central headquarters to answer legal questions and defend party workers. The committee of seventy, which organized the City party, made its announcement tonight that it would promptly prosecute all people committing violations of election law, and $10,000 has been set aside to be paid in rewards to those instrumental in securing the arrest and conviction of election officers.

HARMONY PREVAILS.

City and State Officials in New York Working Together.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—That a vast amount of illegal registration, especially in the down-town sections of the city, has been discovered by the agents of State Superintendent of Elections Morgan was stated today at Mr. Morgan's office. In some instances the same individuals appear to have registered more than a dozen times from different addresses. The superintendent will obtain from the police magistrates the names of those who have been registered, which will be served in the event of the persons named presenting themselves at the polls. In addition to this he will have the names of those "orders of arrest" lists containing the names of 2,000 persons against whom there is evidence of illegal registration. The superintendent also has been supplied with challenge lists containing from 5,000 to 6,000 names of persons whose right to vote is suspected.

FOUL MURDER COMMITTED

Woman of Half-Woman Killed by Her Male Consort.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—With her skull crushed by a blow with an iron bar, the still warm body of Gussie Leicher, a freemason of Tenderloin resorts, was found today in the room in which she lived, West Twenty-eighth street. The police believe the blow was struck by a man with whom she lived, in a quarrel caused by her refusal to account to him for all her earnings. The inspector in charge of the case, who is a woman living in the house, has been ordered to keep a close watch on the Leicher family. The body was found in a room on the second floor of a building on West Twenty-eighth street, near the corner of Broadway. Eklund, surrounded by scenes of disorder prevailed. The police were again and again forced back, but finally, by sending squads of mounted men to ride along the sidewalks, the crowd on foot advanced along the roadways, the streets around the Hippodrome were cleared.

NO ARRESTS MADE.
Throughout the disorder, both at the Hippodrome and the garden, the police refrained from using their clubs, no one was seriously hurt, and no arrests were made.

William Randolph Hearst was the principal speaker at the garden, and he received with an air of triumph, cheering which lasted for nearly twenty minutes. Mr. Hearst evoked another great demonstration when he assured the audience that his election was beyond question. A letter from Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia was read, regretting his inability to be present.

At the Hippodrome the crowd was made up of Congressmen W. Bourke Cockran.

Enormous Crowds Out at McClellan and Hearst Meetings.

IVINS CLAIMS ELECTION

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN CAN ALSO FIGURE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Enthusiastic rallies by the Democrats and the Municipal Ownership league at the Hippodrome and at the Madison Square garden, respectively, marked the closing of the political campaign tonight. An audience of 12,000 persons filled the garden and thousands of women and children surrounded the building and clamored for admission, defying the efforts of 400 policemen to preserve order. It was only after a troop of mounted men had slowly forced the crowd back that Madison Square in front of the garden was cleared.

There were similar scenes outside the Hippodrome, where after the building had been packed to its full capacity and the doors closed, a crowd of more than 10,000 persons filled the adjacent streets, and the police were again and again forced back, but finally, by sending squads of mounted men to ride along the sidewalks, the crowd on foot advanced along the roadways, the streets around the Hippodrome were cleared.

Final statements were issued tonight by Mr. Ivins and the Democrats. The Democrats of the latter also sent out an appeal for $50,000 to be raised for the campaign fund by noon tomorrow.

Mr. Ivins said: "I have the complete knowledge of the situation and in justification of the organization, I declare that the morale of the organization is excellent, and of confidence in my leadership and with victory justly rendered them which will be today."

There are not more than 30,000 Democrats in the city, and the Democrats of the latter also sent out an appeal for $50,000 to be raised for the campaign fund by noon tomorrow.

DRAGGED INTO POLITICS

Their Names Used in Invitation to Brace Up Falling Fortunes of Lynch Campaign.

Deseret News Refuses to Publish Invitation, 5,000 Copies of Which Are Scattered Broadcast Over City for Political Effect on Voters.

FOR the past two weeks the campaign for Lynch has been in a desperate plight, and the members of the Spry-Smoor-Cullister-Anderson clique have been circulating the wildest canards in order to attract support. They have used false figures, they have pretended to have church influence and have circulated any sort of fairy tale that might appear to be of service for the moment. Their emissaries have been trailed from house to house and voters told the truth, so that their strenuous endeavors thus far have been wasted.
